

Yr 4 students – With their STEM teacher Ms Nicole Borg

Our students were taking pictures of living things which can make up a food chain. Then in class we created an actual chain from paper using the images we had taken in the first part of the lesson.